Transfer of Children:

Parents agree to make all transfers of children from one parent to the other calm, civil, and organized. If a parent is running late, he/she will call the other parent (not one of the children) to alert them of the estimated time of arrival. Parents will make every effort to prepare the children in advance of the transfer, both by gathering their belongings ahead of time, and by saying only positive things about the upcoming time with the other parent. Transfers will take place at the following locations on the following weekdays:
